

Russian Meet With German Resistance

man plan apparently is to attack the Russian centre to draw their wings to the East. The Russian army in the former region, the Russians report a further advance, but they have not been able to dislodge the German from the passages of the Masurian Lakes.

In Galicia, Emperor Nicholas's troops are driving the Austrians southward and westward, and have engaged the rear guard at Dukla, at the foot of the Carpathian Mountains.

The Serbians and Montenegrins continue to fall back before larger Austrian forces. It is stated from Vienna that Belgrade again is about to be attacked.

General Botha, commander of the Union of South Africa forces, again has been engaged with German troops. The result of the battle is not yet known. Apparently General de Wet is proving a thorn in the side of his old comrade Botha, for although the latter's command has been captured, General de Wet seems to keep out of the hands of his pursuers.

The action of the converted cruiser Berlin, formerly North German Lloyd liner in deliberately entering the harbor of Trondheim, Norway, and internment, is a mystery here. It is believed that the ship was acting as a convoy for German submarines and was being watched by the allied warships.

GERMANS ARE REPULSED, BUT AT TERRIBLE COST

Supreme Attack in Effort to Break Line at Ypres Seems to Have Failed.

GUARD CORPS IS BEATEN BACK

Sent Into Battle Under Eyes of Their Emperor, Soldiers Show Utter Contempt of Death That Wins Enemy's Admiration.

LONDON, November 17.—Colonel E. D. Swinton, the official observer at the British headquarters, gave to-day a further chapter in his narrative of the fighting at Ypres. He said that the British staff officer had been seen near the trenches and walked along the line. He asked if many casualties had been suffered, stating that a general retirement had been ordered. A similar visit having been reported by several men in different trenches, orders were issued that this strange officer was to be detained if seen again. Unluckily, he did not make another appearance.
